

For immediate release: 17 December 2009

NOTE TO ELVES: SANTA'S GONE FISHIN'

On a pre-Christmas break ahead of his 2009 world tour, Santa will visit Sydney Fish Market on Monday 21 December to celebrate the festive season.

While the reindeer rest in preparation for their Christmas Eve deliveries, Santa will arrive by helicopter with balloons and treats, ready to make note of last minute Christmas wishes.

WHAT: Santa arrives at Sydney Fish Market via helicopter

WHEN: Santa arrives between 12.00-12.30pm, Monday 21st December

WHERE: Fisherman's Wharf, Sydney Fish Market

Sydney Fish Market this Christmas

Sydney Fish Market's annual pre-Christmas shopping event, the 36-Hour Seafood Marathon starts at 5am on Wednesday, 23 December with Sydney-siders invited to shop through the night for their essential Christmas seafood supplies, until doors close at 5pm on Thursday, 24 December.

The 36-hour Seafood Marathon is designed to take the hassle out of Christmas preparations as families choose to take the heat out of the kitchen on Christmas day with a seafood barbeque feast or a delicious cool seafood platter.

With over 80,000 shoppers expected to descend on the Sydney Fish Market during the event each minute Sydney-siders will buy:

- Almost 1,000 oysters
- 93kg of Snapper
- 83kg of prawns

Sydney Fish Market is located at Bank St, Pyrmont. Parking is available at Sydney Fish Market and Sydney Secondary College, Blackwattle Bay Campus for a flat rate of $3.00 for two hours enter via Pyrmont Bridge Road. The Metro Light Rail will also operate continuously to the Sydney Fish Market stop throughout the 36-hour trade. Further event information can be found on the 'Events' page on www.sydneyfishmarket.com.au. Alternatively, bus services 501 and 443 regularly depart from the city. For route and timetable information, visit www.131500.com.au.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT:

Belinda Toward
Cox Inall Communications
Phone: 02 8204 3878
Mobile: 0402 012 531